Irregular verbs pose a notable challenge due to their unpredictable past forms, such as go (went), buy (bought), or see (saw). Recognizing and correctly applying these forms is vital but often problematic.

- Auxiliary Verbs and Negatives

Understanding and correctly using auxiliary verbs like do, does, did, and will is essential but often tricky, especially in negative and interrogative forms.

- Time Indicators and Context

Sometimes, learners struggle to choose the correct tense based on contextual clues or time indicators. For example, selecting the past tense when a sentence references a specific past event.
