Defining the Phrase

"Women who love too much" is a phrase popularized by authors like Robin Norwood in her book

Women Who Love Too Much. It describes women who exhibit an intense capacity for love, often to their own detriment. These women tend to form deep emotional bonds, sometimes to the point of obsession or self-sacrifice, and frequently find themselves in patterns of unreciprocated or unhealthy relationships.

This tendency stems from complex psychological, emotional, and social factors, including:

- Childhood experiences
- Attachment styles
