Early Foundations: From Page to Squire

Initial Training as a Page

The journey to knighthood traditionally begins in childhood, around the age of 7. Boys from noble families are sent to a lord's household to serve as pages. This early education is centered around:

- Basic literacy, reading, and writing
- Training in music, poetry, and arts to cultivate cultural refinement
- Assisting with household chores and small tasks to instill discipline and humility

The role of a page is foundational, emphasizing service, respect, and the beginnings of martial training.

Transition to Squire

Between the ages of 14 and 21, a page advances to become a squire. This stage marks a more serious commitment to martial training and the responsibilities of knighthood. As a squire, the young man:

- Serves a knight, often his lord or a family member
- Assists with armor and weapon maintenance
- Participates in training exercises, including swordsmanship, horsemanship, and tactics
